

Please retain the current ownership rules. We have had enough media consolidation and dissenting points of view are increasingly being squelched. Additional consolidation would have a harmful effect on our democracy.